GRAND LITERARY AND ARTISTIC COMBINATION. Arrangements have been made to furfish the KNICKERBOCKER MAGAZINE, the Home Joulanal, and the New York Musical World and Times, to new subscribers, for five dollars a year ! This is cheap literature, with a vengeance. The Knickerbocker is $3 per annum; the Home Journal, $2; and the Musical World and Times; $3; making $8 a year at the usual rates. That three such works can be obtained for five dellars a year, is a fact truly worthy the Caloric age, which is just now being ushered in. Of the Knickerbecker Magazine, edited by Lewis GAYLORD CLARKE, it is unnecessary to speak — For twanty years, it has I cen the most genial, humorous, and spicy "monthly" in the world; and the present volume will be better than any which preceded it. The Home Journal, edited by Gea, P Morris, and N. P. Willis, is known as the lest family newspaper in America: and the Musical World and times, edited Richard Storrs Willis, with Lowell Mason, Geo. H. Curtis, Thomas Hasting, Wm B. Bradbury, Geo. F. Root, and other musicial, writers contributing; and which gives, among other things, over $25 worth of music and a full course of instruction in harmony annually, is the very best inusica, journal ever published. These three publications will post a family up in regard to nearly everything worth knowing; — Art, Science, Literature, Music, Painting, Sculpture: Inventions, Discoveries; Wit, Humor, Fancy, Sentiment, the Newest Fashions and other attractions for Ladies; Choice New Music for the Sabbath, the Church, and the Fireside; Reviews and Criticisms of Musical Works, Performers and Performances; In short, the very pick and cream of Novelty, Inchient, History, Biography, Art, Literature and from Manufacturers and Agents, are such, that he will be able to offer inducembitles equal to the largest Johbing Houses in the Wost.
